

In the letter notifying Riverside of their decision, Brian J. Boon, President/CEO of CARF, stated, “This achievement is an indication of [Riverside’s] dedication and commitment to improving the quality of the lives of the persons served. Services, personnel, and documentation clearly indicate an established pattern of practice excellence.” Kathy Janssen, Director of Quality Management for Riverside, was delighted with the decision, explaining that “having a well-respected accrediting body, such as CARF, recognize the extraordinary efforts of our staff to provide high-quality services is extremely gratifying.”

We are proud to delivering quality services and delighted to be recognized for our achievements.
