

SUCCESS

Carmen shared her story about coming to The Guidance Center for help with drug use, anger, and a pattern of lying as a teenager. She now has an M.A. in Expressive Therapy and is helping others.

Through her participation in our Children with Voices program and other services at The Guidance Center, Debbie learned to advocate for herself, worked hard to heal from trauma, and is a role model for her children and many others.

After languishing in a nursing home, John joined one of Riverside's community residences for brain injury survivors. He is enjoying more active treatment, resulting in his ability to express his needs, walk, and return to his favorite activities – fishing and skiing with his family.

Mirabelle, whose family received our Early Intervention services, is now able to walk with her walker, use a fork, and speak in complex sentences!

Tom's sister and brother-in-law are happy for him – he has learned to do his own laundry, shop for groceries, and build relationships with his neighbors and others at his day program.
