Enrollment is Open at Riverside School

Riverside School, with sites in Needham and Milford, serves students in grades 6–12 who have struggled to succeed in a traditional classroom, often after significant mental health challenges. With small class sizes, individualized academic and clinical support, and a team that meets each student where they are, Riverside School helps students reconnect with school, build confidence, and grow both academically and emotionally.

Riverside's Recovery Celebration Returns Sept. 16

Join us on Wednesday, September 16, at noon as Riverside celebrates recovery! We're pleased to welcome special guest speaker Deirdre Calvert, MSW, LICSW, Director of the Bureau of Substance Addiction Services. Attendees can also look forward to hearing several stories of experience, strength, and hope from people served by Riverside. It will not only be a time to recognize individuals in recovery but also to remember those we have lost to substance use. Open to all.
